

THE BOURBON NEWS.

PUBLISHED EVERY TUESDAY AND FRIDAY IN THE YEAR.

VOLUME XXVII

PARIS, KENTUCKY, FRIDAY, APRIL 19, 1907.

NUMBER 22.

Steady Growth.

The News is not the only paper published in Kentucky, nor the only one published in this Congressional District. There are some others just as good, but we are led to believe by the number of new subscribers we have lately received and are still receiving that the paper is appreciated by the public and considered a value at the subscription price of $2. As long as the News exists under its present management it will be Democratic, always loyal to party nominees; it will strive to be a factor in the upbuilding of Paris and Bourbon county and ever loyal to its friends and lenient to its enemies. With malice toward none, and the news for all.

Child Burned To Death.

Lizzie James, aged four years, was frightfully burned at Georgetown, Tuesday, and died in great agony. She was the daughter of Wm. James, a lineman in the employ of the Paris Electric Light Company. The child's mother left it alone in a room, and in a few moments the little girl ran screaming into the street, her clothing blazing.

James had just left Paris to visit his family and was en route to Georgetown when the accident happened. The funeral was held at 2:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, the interment being in the Georgetown Cemetery.

Mr. James, the child's father, has been a resident of Paris for several months and was making preparations to move his family here.

Parisian In College Debate.

The debating societies of Kentucky University and the State College will meet in an annual engagement styled "Logomachy, or War of Words," in Morrison Chapel, at Lexington, Friday evening, April 19. The subject of the debate will be, "Resolved, That the United States would be justified in establishing her permanent rule in Cuba."

Among the speakers on the affirmative side will be Reuben Hutchcraft, Jr., of Paris, an accomplished young orator, who has already won laurels as a keen reasoner and a ready debater. Mr. Hutchcraft has participated in several debates and has shown himself capable of holding his own against some very good debating orators.

April Fools.

Martin Doyle's mare, Mary Elliott, by Margrave, dam Miss McLaughlin, by Sir Dixon, foaled a bay colt by imp. Kilcarne, Tuesday.

Doug, Thomas' fine mare Birthright by Fairlawn, dam Birthmark, by Kentucky Prince, foaled a black filly by Rhythmic, 2:06 1/2, at Mr. Thomas' stock farm.

At Runnymede, Col. E. F. Clay's stock farm, near Paris, the following foals are reported: B. f. by Sir Dixon, out of Rosebay; b. c. by Sir Dixon, out of Cold Wave; b. f. by Sir Dixon, out of Breakwater; ch. c. by imp. Star Shoot, out of Auvergne; b. f. by Sir Dixon, out of Dingle; ch. c. by Sir Dixon, out of Alpena; b. c. by Sir Dixon, out of New Leaf; ch. c. by imp. Star Shoot, out of Maconia; b. c. by Bridgewater, out of Chapter; ch. c. by Bridgewater, out of Calce.

Gets Ten Years.

At Winchester Sam Wilson was given ten years in the penitentiary on two charges of horse stealing and was taken to Frankfort Tuesday night.

Wilson admitted having stolen three horses in thirty days. One of them was stolen in Clark county, another in Mason county and the third in Bourbon. Sidney Clay, the owner of the Bourbon county horse went to see Wilson and was told that his horse had been disposed of in Huntington, W. Va. Mr. Clay proceeded to Huntington and there found his horse, which was a valuable one, being one of a carriage team worth $600.

Death Of Miss Martha Payne.

The body of Miss Martha Viley Payne, who died suddenly at Corbin, Kentucky, arrived in Paris Tuesday morning on the 5:30 a. m. Louisville & Nashville train and was taken to the residence of her cousin, Mrs. Hugh Montgomery, on Duncan avenue.

Miss Payne's mother, Mrs. Rosa Payne, a teacher at Bourbon College, was in Lexington at the time of her daughter's death. Miss Payne was a gifted young woman, and had been teaching music at Corbin for the past two years, spending the summer months with her mother at Bourbon College. At the time of death she had just finished giving a lesson in music in her room at Mrs. Wyatt's when she suddenly swooned and before medical aid could reach her died without speaking a word.

Miss Payne was born near Payne's Depot in Fayette county, and had a large acquaintance throughout Central Kentucky. She was a consistent member of the Christian church and active in religious work.

The funeral was held at the residence Wednesday at 2 o'clock p. m., services by Elder John I. Shouse, of Lexington, assisted by Elder Carey E. Moran.

The body, accompanied by relatives and friends, was taken to Lexington on a special funeral car over the interurban line, going direct to the cemetery where the interment took place at 4 p. m. The pall-bearers were Joe Varden, Withers Davis, Dr. C. G. Dougherty, Charles McMillan, Dr. Thomas Price, Walter Payne, Hume Payne and Thomas Allen.

Mrs. Payne has the universal sympathy of the community in this sad trial.

Moon Dealt A Body Blow.

Mr. H. F. Hillenmeyer, the well known nurseryman of Fayette county, who has earned the right to be considered as authority on all matters pertaining to horticulture and agriculture, gives it as his opinion, based on experience and observation that the moon has no influence whatever on things planted. In a letter to a correspondent he says:

My Dear Sir:—In reply, I have not a particle of faith in the moon, and regulate no planting whatever thereby. It further is my judgment that the moon has no influence whatever on things planted. May I, however, say that many good men do believe in the moon. Mr. William Warfield, for instance, but I think there is not a bit of real truth in that belief. Yours truly,

H. F. HILLENMEYER.

The News declines to take sides on this important discussion, although we think Mr. Hillenmeyer's opinion is certainly worth something.

Truth Will Out.

John Smith, star witness in the Britton case at Lexington, told a glib story on the stand of the plotting to assassinate Cockrill, Dr. Cox and Marcum and how the plans were carried out. Smith admitted being addicted to the use of morphine, and the defense sought on this ground to discredit his testimony.

State College Summer Session.

The State College of Kentucky has inaugurated a summer session for technical instruction that will prove of immense advantage to students who desire to make up deficiencies or to lighten their work for the ensuing year. Short courses will be especially arranged for those who are unable to attend the regular college session but who desire to prepare themselves for more advanced engineering work. The courses in detail embrace structural drafting, plane surveying, graphic statics, railway engineering, roof and bridge design, and stone cutting.

To enter these courses no educational requirements will be specified and each applicant will be allowed to pursue the course or courses he may select in as elementary manner as desired. The course will begin June 10, and close August 3.
